REVIEWS AND PROMOTION OF RESEARCH

Referee for articles submitted to the Journal of Public Affairs, 2004.

Referee for articles submitted to Business and Society Journal, 1998 and 1999.

Referee for "Top Management Team Characteristics and Corporate Criminal Activity," Academy of Management Review, forthcoming in 1995. The article was revised and resubmitted over a two-year period and ultimately accepted. I offered a detailed critique that helped facilitate improvement and acceptance of the article.

Referee for "The Diversity of State Interest Group Systems," published in the Western Political Quarterly. I completed a detailed critique of the submission in 1991. It was revised to meet the reviewers' concerns and ultimately published.

Co-chair, Research Committee, Social Issues in Management (SIM) Division, Academy of Management, 1991-93.

Organizer of a symposium on corporate criminal liability and wrote the 15-page proposal for the symposium that was one of the few accepted by the Social Issues in Management Division of the Academy of Management for its 1992 Annual Meeting in Las Vegas, Nevada, on August 9-12, 1992. I invited the following participants to contribute to the symposium: William S. Laufer of the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce, on Japanese Executive Liability; Kenneth Wm. Thornicroft, of Memorial University of Newfoundland, on Canadian Executive Liability; and Mark A. Cohen of the Owen Graduate School of Management at Vanderbilt University, on the Sentencing Guidelines and Corporate Criminal Liability in the United States. I also presented, on the symposium, a paper titled, "Corporate Criminal Liability: Alternative Standards and Remedies."

Reviewer of Papers Submitted to:

Social Issues in Management (SIM) Division, Academy of Management - 1995, 1994, 1992, 1991, and several times in the 1980s.

International Association for Business and Society - 1993, 1991, 1990.
