Total Credits for BSBA-Hotel, Restaurant & Tourism Mgmt.....			185

This course list is from the existing curriculum, which will change officially fall 2010. All those who enter the School of HRTM in fall 2009 will migrate to the new curriculum when it becomes official, without any loss in credits. We cannot list the new, state-of-the-art curriculum here as courses are in the development/approval process. The new curriculum builds on the Daniels core and enables students to specialize in one of several resort-related career areas.

In the new curriculum, HRTM 1300 and HRTM 1400 will no longer be offered. In their place will be HRTM 1350, Introduction to Resort Operations. Students entering in fall 2009 will take HRTM 1350 in the fall of 2010.

* Students who pass a foreign language equivalency exam may apply these credits toward electives.

 All Business students entering DU in Fall 2006 and thereafter must fulfill an international experience before they can graduate. (See pg. 2)

The final responsibility for completing graduation requirements rests with the student.

Additional Information:

- Only grades of "C-" or above may be used in completing business courses AND including ECON 1020, ECON 1030, STAT1300, STAT 1400 and MATC 1200 (or MATH 1951).
- A minimum average GPA of 2.0 ("C") is required for all major course work, all business course work, and the overall cumulative GPA.
- Elective credits may be applied toward a minor within or outside Daniels (other than general business minor), a second major, or fulfilled through course work from any campus unit(s) with the exception of The Women's College or University College.
- Based upon departmental and University approval students may transfer a maximum of 20 credit hours from other institutions, including schools attended through the DU study abroad program, toward the undergraduate Business Core. A minimum of 24 hours toward the major and 10 hours toward any business minor must be completed at the University of Denver.

DCB 1 and 2 Check Points

Students pursuing BSBA/BSACC degrees must meet Degree Check Points (known as DCB 1 and 2) as they successfully matriculate and subsequently graduate.

Check Points serve as collective prerequisites, providing necessary content and background. They must be closely followed.

Students may not enroll in courses in the next Check Point until they have met requirements in the current Check Point.

DCB 1 (all must be satisfactorily completed to move to DCB 2)

- FOLA sequence OR NATS sequence
- MGMT 2000, LGST 2000 (prerequisite for both: 45 hours completed)

^Microsoft (MCAS) certification is embedded in STAT 1300 (Excel) and STAT 1400 (Word, PPT). If a student transfers in STAT 1300 and/or STAT 1400, they must meet MCAS separately.

DCB 2 (must be satisfactorily completed to move to DCB 3)

Careers in Hotel, Restaurant, and Tourism Management

The program in hotel, restaurant and tourism management prepares individuals for a variety of managerial positions in the hospitality field, both internationally and within the United States. The school enjoys an excellent reputation and strong support from within the industry. Graduates hold challenging positions in hotels, restaurants, various institutional feeding operations, airlines, clubs, resorts, and industry-related sales organizations.

The degree requirements include a core set of business management courses that provide a solid foundation for the specialized core in hospitality management. This curriculum plan incorporates a broad base of business and hospitality knowledge, preparing the student for a wide variety of career opportunities. Specific career direction is established through a selection of work experiences and elective courses. Faculty advisors meet with students quarterly to monitor academic progress and provide career advising.

International Experience

Business students must be prepared to interact with persons from other cultures and to manage in circumstances where business practices and social conventions are different from the graduate's native country. To meet this requirement, all students entering Fall 2006 or thereafter must fulfill an international experience before they can graduate as a business major. International students meet this requirement by virtue of studying at DU.

Hotel, Restaurant & Tourism Management majors meet the international experience by participating in the Cherrington Global Scholars Program.
