

Mission:

The mission of the Minor in Tourism Studies is to produce enlightened students who, as employees, managers or tourists, are aware of the impact of tourism in general and their role in particular and who actively strive to create tourism experiences for themselves and others that result in an equitable distribution of benefits amongst tourists, the tourism industries, the destinations visited and local populations at the destination.

Requirements:

This minor requires a minimum of 20 hours from the following list:

Upcoming Courses:

Fall 2009 ANTH 3701 Topics in Anthropology: Indigenous People and the Environment (4)
Pre-requisite: SOCS 1010 – Foundations in Anthropology (4)

Winter 2010 ANTH 3000 Anthropology of Tourism (4)

Spring 2010 HRTM 3560 Resort & Tourism Marketing (4)

Fall 2010

Winter 2011 ANTH 2600 Museums and Public Culture (4)
Pre-requisite: SOCS 1010 – Foundations in Anthropology (4)

BIOL 3060 Tropical Ecology (3)

Pre-requisite: BIOL 2010 – General Ecology (4)

Spring 2011 GEOG 2420 Geography of Tourism (4)

Other:

ENGL 3017 Travel Writing – Fiction and Fact (4)

GEOG 3460 Air Transportation & Tourism (4)

INTS 3XXX Paradise for Sale: Tourism and Development (5)

NOTE: Students may petition to have a course taken during study abroad substitute for one of the required courses.

Students from the following degrees are eligible to take this minor:

BA; BFA; BSACC; BSAT; BSBA; BSCPE; BSEE; BSME

Details: Contact HRTM 303.871.2322